

Now let's talk about the Compound Sentence.

A compound sentence consists of two or more independent clauses. Each clause contains a subject and a predicate of its own.

The moon was bright and we could see our way

Independent clause

Independen
clause

Coordinating Conjunctions

Ordinarily, a coordinating conjunction (e.g. and, but, or, for) joins the two clauses.

The main coordinating conjunctions are for, and, not, but, or, yet, and so. You can remember them with the acronym FANBOYS
